

Veterinary Services Europe

100th Medical Detachment (VS HQ)

Commander, 21st Medical Detachment (VS)(SM)

MAJ Kimberly Lawler was raised in Harriman, Tennessee. She graduated from Harriman Senior High School in 1980. MAJ Lawler enrolled at Roane State Community College and graduated Suma Cum Laude with an Associate of Science in Pre-Medicine. She was awarded a Community College Scholarship from the University of Tennessee where she obtained her Bachelor of Science in Animal Science in 1994. She then attended the University of Tennessee, College of Veterinary Medicine and graduated with her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine Degree in 1998.

MAJ Lawler early commissioned during her second year of veterinary school and entered active service in May of 1998 following graduation. She completed Officers Basic Course at Fort Sam Houston, Texas and was assigned as OIC of Parris Island Marine Corps Recruit Depot in Beaufort, South Carolina from 1998-2000. MAJ Lawler completed the Installation Veterinary Service Course in 2001 and Officers Advance Course in 2002 at Fort Sam Houston. Following her first assignment, MAJ Lawler moved to Guam where she was assigned as Chief, Naval Support Branch from 2000-2002. Following her second assignment, she was assigned as Chief, Sigonella Branch, Sigonella Naval Air Station, Sicily from 2002-2004. She is currently serving an assignment as Commander, 21st Medical Detachment (VS)(SM), Hohenfels, Germany.

MAJ Lawler's military awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal (2 OLC), Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and Meritorious Unit Citation.